Social Justice Education Series

A monthly virtual workshop series to engage youth across Orange County on various issues impacting our society today. Topics may include: racism, immigration, climate change, gender inequality, lgbtqia+ issues, housing insecurity & gentrification, elections & civic engagement.

Workshops will occur the 3rd Wednesday of every month from 5:00-7:00pm, open to all Orange County high school students.

For more information and to sign up, visit:
www.ochumanrelations.org/educationseries

OC Human Relations